If you're so worried about him, and trashing everyone that has tried to help. WHY don't you take him home with you? Instead of putting in someone else's hands. Do it yourself.

Sheila Hall he won't go, sheriff and others have been notified and tried. People are dropping off what they can

I understand that, my comment was for the author of post slamming people saying they don't care.

When a dog is running around in the desert 50 people will volunteer to catch the dog and get it to a rescue. Even though it clearly doesn't WANT help, since it is running away, has to be trapped.

When a human being is so lost and clearly needs mental health care, you all don't give a shit and leave him out there in the desert to die.

So Meadview.

Austin Newell LaVigne I did stop and give him some food and water but he didn't want any help I did call the police and they said that they have spoke to him and he doesn't want any help from them either. I spoke with him a little while he is definitely mentally challenged

We have given him food b4 he threw it n the garbage. Many people have tried to help him but he made it obvious he doesn't want it & doesn't appreciate it when u do try to help. He would rather sit on random corners trashing wutever area he is occupying. Its absolutely disgusting. It's getting a bit ridiculous.

It's been almost exactly 7 years since KRMC refused to admit Leo Goding and I spent HOURS calling everyone who was suggested to me by anyone.

A few days later Leo was dead:

<https://highdesertdirt.com/.../leo-goding-12-2-42-to-7.../>

I've tried very hard to stay away from people, to know as few as possible, and people kept dying, with no help, just like that guy will likely die unless someone gets him the state-of-the-art treatment he needs and deserves.

We'll all die one day, but NOBODY ought to die like the old, sick and mentally ill in our shithole county.

MOST of you voted for this, for the poor to suffer and for the rich to reap the profits.

When this man dies from lack of care, it's on you.

Connie Hargreaves You take the man to a place where they take blood and urine samples to determine whether he's on drugs (unlikely) or suffers from a chemical imbalance. Complete labs including toxicology, metals, mold, and the whole 9 yards.

I think the SO knows who he is, so probably no DNA sample is required.

He can shower, get a clean bed and get some sleep.

Provide organic high fat / low sugar food.

Talk to him several times/day, try to get him to open up.

Give him access to a peaceful garden, library, computer, and of course other "inmates" so he can socialize if he so desires. Observe.

Introduce him to service animals, dogs, cats .... see whether he's comfortable around them and if so, it might make him feel better.

Once he is comfortable interacting with others and coherent, do a full brain workup. In Kingman, MRI and EEG might be all there is. I'm also not aware of any COMPETENT mental health professionals in Kingman.

But it's a start. Since KRMC, Southwest and Mohave Mental Health employ only imbeciles, I think the County needs to hire a psychologist with never thought I'd send anyone there. But at this point, even they're a better option than death in the desert.

Christine Baker he won't go and I can not force him into my car, how hard would you fight with someone to keep from going yourself, I'll follow you and hopefully keep you from harm if he starts after you dangerously in his mental state, it must be his choice and not yours, you need help like he dies, no further talk from me as you are not understanding HE DIES NIT WANT YOUR HELP! Yes it makes many of us sad but you need help always being angry at those who don't do what YOU want

Connie Hargreaves Sorry, misunderstanding, that's not for you or me to do.

MCSO and ambulance.

And that's what this is all about. The systemic extermination of the poor and deputy Rider REFUSING to help him.

Sharon Oie Harris I'm trying. But I don't have the authority or physical strength to pick him up and take him home.

The SO refuses to assist as the deputy determined that he is not incapacitated and has the right to be there. There's a guy who needs to be fired.

The asshole asked me whether I was a mental health professional and since I'm not, I asked whether any professional had examined him.

He refused to answer many of my questions claiming "privacy" rights, but NO mental health professional with half a working brain would certify him as COMPETENT.

I don't know why I have to do everything around here. Will contact the AG, Leo and Regina.

Hoping that at least they'll enact legislation to allow me to schedule my euthanasia BEFORE I walk into the desert.

At least half of you will end up like him.

Christine Baker would you like a ride to relax down there at the lake,
It would do you some good,
This man is clearly wandering around wherever he wants and that's what he chooses to do,
May as well get use to the situation for its only going to get worse,

Courtney Martzen we stopped and asked if he was alright, it was just after dark and he said I'm alright man! Thank you. He had a case of water, sleeping gear, and supplies. He also was listening to a radio! In my opinion he is just gathering his thoughts and just taking a time out from life. That's just my opinion, no comments are necessary!

I have the SOLUTION!!!!

Does anyone know a DOCTOR or NURSE who would be willing to go out there?

According to deputy Rider, that's what it takes. Someone QUALIFIED has to determine that he needs help and then they HAVE to take him!

I don't care what it costs, I'll pay for it.

Nobody cares. Called the Mohave Mental Health number and 988:

Worked on this over 14 hours, really wanted to get something up so that "somebody" would do something.
