Exhibit 1

Elliot August 4, 2022

Summary of my attempts to get Elliot to talk on 8/8/22:

I asked him to go to the hospital with me and it almost looked like he was agreeable, but I think he just didn't understand.

I asked for his name. NOTHING.

I asked how long he'd been there. NOTHING.

I asked whether his family had visited lately. NOTHING

I asked what happened to his eye. NOTHING

I asked why he didn't want to use the brand new sleeping bag people had dropped off so he'd have a clean space to sit and sleep. NOTHING.

I asked what happened to the new-in-box tent someone had dropped off. NOTHING.

Did someone else take it? NOTHING.

When Elliot became increasingly nervous and stressed as I talked about going to a doctor, I backed off and went back into my truck. I was worried he'd run away, out into the desert.

One time I asked him to go sit in the shade under the trees and he understood and did that.

“He refuses help from authorities”

“he was on the corner of Thompson and 66 there are dozens of people who tried to help him in many ways and he always refused everyone”

“This man is clearly wandering around wherever he wants and that’s what he chooses to do, May as well get use to the situation for its only going to get worse,”

“we stopped and asked if he was alright, it was just after dark and he said I’m alright man! Thank you. He had a case of water, sleeping gear, and supplies. He also was listening to a radio! In my opinion he is just gathering his thoughts and just taking a time out from life. That’s just my opinion, no comments are necessary!”

“We have given him food b4 he threw it n the garbage. Many people have tried to help him but he made it obvious he doesn’t want it & doesn’t appreciate it when u do try to help. He would rather sit on random corners trashing wutever area he is occupying. Its absolutely disgusting. It’s getting a bit ridiculous.”

“He spent 3 days walking there and refused help”

“I am sure they have checked on him. He was there on Monday. Sad to see. Must not want help”

“I did stop and give him some food and water but he didn’t want any help I did call the police and they said that they have spoke to him and he doesn’t want any help from them either. I spoke with him a little while he is definitely mentally challenged and has some serious issues”

“We also called 911 on Monday and he refused help. We gave him water and some snacks we had with us.”

“He refuses help from his family who opened their home”

“It sounds like the man who was found deceased at mile marker 24 on Stockdale hill Rd.”
